Area Guide

A growing community, Darley Dale has everything you need for day-to-day life just a short walk away including a medical centre, children's play area, post office and supermarket. The town also features several traditional pubs and local restaurants perfect for casual dinners or celebrating special occasions, alongside a variety of cafes where you can sit back and relax with a morning coffee and pastry.

Located between Matlock and Bakewell, you will never be short of activities living in Darley Dale. Close to both Chatsworth House and Haddon Hall, the town is set in the Derwent Valley on the edge of the picturesque Peak District, perfect for those wanting to spend time in the great outdoors. For family-friendly adventure experiences, Peaks and Paddles Outdoor Adventure offers canoeing, kayaking, caving and abseiling.
